

It is a travesty to think that the FCC would allow huge conglomerates to control the airwaves. I am against any more consolidation of television and radio by big business.